PRESIDENT'S REPORT: Bringing back new member initiation into the Club. November 10th will be the date of the initiation. Ted Springer and Ken Graves have been instrumental in making this happen, and if you remember what the Club used to do regarding initiations, or if you have suggestions, please contact Andy Evans, Ted Springer, or Ken Graves.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES: SOCIAL DISTANCING! WEAR MASKS! STAY COVID-FREE!

PROGRAM: Gary Sheffer of ColorWorld presented. Gary has a wife (Rebecca) and 3 daughters. He is from Indiana and lived in Oregon for a while as well. Gary played golf in college at Marion College in Indianapolis. Gary got into banking out of college and didn't like it because he realized that he's more a people person, and he gravitates towards small, intimate settings. His wife told him that you don't have to be miserable, and that's when he decided to own a ColorWorld franchise. They do interior and exterior painting for both residential and commercial purposes. They also do holiday lighting.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Ben Blackerby presided as sergeant. Mike Lorino and Daniel Gallegly were late. Wes Cline and Fred Johnston had phones ring during the meeting. The buffet line was too long at the start of the meeting. Jeff Phillips thanked the sergeant in advance, and then his table had a general air of disruptiveness throughout the meeting. Johnny Self left prior to the meeting even starting. All fines are waived.

JACKPOT: $17 won by Mike Seals
