They started out doing residential cleaning but now they mainly do commercial cleaning. Specialty Cleaning does windows, carpets (smaller carpets, not thousands of feet), stripping and waxing of floors, pressure washing. Tom says that at the end of the day, it's all about the Club. Tom mentioned helping with jobs for Joe Fuller, Mike Lorino (which was also helped by Tim Hightower), Ken Graves, Greg Troncale, Matt Gray, and Darryl White. Tom is from South Africa and he emigrated here because it is much safer in America than it is in South Africa. Tom mentioned some of the history of South Africa and how education towards the black people of the country has not been what it needs to be.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Kyle Moon presided as sergeant. Jim Kline, Darrel Arnold, and James Lucas were late. Darryl White's phone went off and Joseph Habshey left early. Mike Seals and Andy Evans started a ruckus by questioning Tom Meter's accent when saying the word "deck" when Tom was speaking of helping clean Joe Fuller's deck. CD Denson, Hank Spencer, Ben Blackerby, and Dean Ledbetter were all fined for laughing too loudly. Jeff Baker told a dirty joke regarding the cleaning of decks. Jeff Baker also accused Kyle Moon and Andy Evans of being members of the LGBTQ community.
