A motion was brought before the Club as a whole, and the motion was passed unanimously by all Club members. Joe Fuller now holds President Emeritus status.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES: None.

PROGRAM: New member initiation was led by Andrew Evans. Andy discussed the history of the Club and how important the Club is to him not just from a financial standpoint, but especially from a personal standpoint. There are Club members who are some of his greatest friends and mentors. Many Club members then stood up and presented stories from the past about how important City Salesmen's Club is to them personally. Dan Weingarten, Kyle Moon, and Alex Solis were present to receive their ties. The most recent initiation was on November 10th, 2020, so that is the date that Club members from that initiation will need to wear their ties until.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Jeff Baker presided as sergeant. Tom Meter was late. Steve Harless spilled his drink. Johnny Self was fined for child endangerment. Joe Daniel Howard Whatley tried to call Mike Seals during the meeting (twice) to get Mike in trouble. Philip Webb wore a tie that looks like Andy's genitalia. Andy Evans was fined for mocking the sergeant. John Sivley fined for interrupting. Hank Spencer was fined for being out of order when calling for a vote. Paul Dangel was not fined, but the sergeant did provide Paul with a definition of the word "discussion".
