PROGRAM: Ken Graves - Mainline Heating & Air. Ken started Mainline in 1989 with "a pickup truck, a few tools, a will to make it". Married in 2001 to his current wife of 20 years, Ken has 2 sons and his youngest son mostly runs the business today. Ken was able to persevere through tragedies in his life through God's guidance. Ken shared some of his personal life stories with the club that were very moving and well received. He paid tribute to former president's of the CSC, namely the late Joe Fuller who affectionately referred to him as "Paul Bunyan" & Joseph Habshey, who convinced Ken to join the City Sales Club. Ken was a former president of the CSC from 2016-2017. Ken's hobbies are fishing all over the world, golf, and reading books (Sometimes 2 at once). Ken gave an excellent and inspiring program.
