Bo Kerr - Assistant VP for University Advancement at Samford University

Bo started off by addressing the newer members of the club stressing that you get out of it what you put into it. Bo joined the CSC in 2006. He regrets no being able to be here more than he has. Samford University was founded in 1841, over 141 years ago. They have 10 different schools, and over 6000+ Students enrolled. Spent 22 years in College Athletics but has now found his calling in his current position. Bo spoke about NIL (Name-Image-Likeness). This allows college athletes to make additional income off of their name image and likeness. He spoke on the collective groups at larger schools who are paying these students through non-profit organizations. Bo also spoke on the transfer portal in these colleges and the headaches it is causing the coaching staffs and administrations. He spoke on the lack of loyalty in kids nowadays. Bo gave a great speech and was incredibly engaging with the CSC crowd, answering questions throughout the program.
