PROGRAM: Dan Weingarten – Birmingham MarbleWorks
Dan is the father to 2 sons. He grew up in Roebuck and lettered in 3 sports. As an outfielder/1st baseman in baseball, he was recruited by Alabama, but ended up at Auburn. After graduation, Dan worked for 24 years in the stone industry. He had many mentors along the way, mainly baseball coaches. He started as a sales rep selling tile out of college, working his way up to Regional Sales Manager over 5 states. Dan decided to start his own business in 2000 after getting road weary at his job. The great recession and COVID/pandemic had a huge impact on his business. He's been through a huge reorganization over the last 6 months and is considering a new venture. He loves to hunt and fish and has caught some whoppers. Dan expressed his appreciation to the Club for keeping him grounded and for being there for him after his brother's passing.
