PROGRAM: Cassels Krebs – Pleasure Is All Wine
Cassels is a 39-year-old living the bachelor life. Joseph Habshey was his club sponsor. He went to school at McCallie and garnered 2,000 demerits. He's a member at St. Luke's Episcopal Church and Church of the Highlands. Started his career at PF Chang's. After a few different restaurant stops, he went to Oregon and learned quite a bit about wine, becoming a sommelier. He's also achieved level 1 cicerone certification. After coming back to Alabama, he began working at Pleasure Is All Wine, which is owned by Lee McKinney. Lee McKinney is also a mentor, who is involved with Smile-A-Mile and Red Nosed Ball. Cassels can help acquire hard-to-find wines. Spirits in Alabama cost more than other states, because Alabama adds a 60% tax before sales tax is added at point-of-sale. Cassels talked a lot about living a healthy life and partaking in moderation.

SERGEANT AT ARMS: Matt Gray had limited material due to the long whip of El Presidente, although he appropriately fined the gravy maker.

GREETERS & PRIZES:
Jack Weber – The Golf office – won by Bruce Compton
James Lucas – Veritiv – won by Mike Lorino

JACKPOT: $44 – Won by Tom Meter
