PROGRAM: Hank Spencer – Image Arts

Hank is married Ruth. They have a son living in Steamboat Springs, CO, and a daughter who's a sophomore at Auburn.

Hank has been a member since 2014 and is a Past President. Prior to buying into the Image Arts franchise in 2002, he was a software engineer with SunGard. Employees of SunGard were in the World Trade Center on 9/11, but none were killed. That is also the day Hank turned in his resignation.

Right after Hank purchased his Image Arts franchise 21 years ago, the franchisor went bankrupt. He was able to continue operating under the name but doesn't have other franchisee obligations. Image Arts "takes pictures to new dimensions" with 3 main offerings: photography, customer framing, and fine art printing. Specifically, he offers photograph reproduction (giclée's), oil print reproduction and photo restoration. He can scan old slides, negatives and pictures to flash drives or hard drives. He can convert VHS tapes, DVD's, etc. to mp4. A bit of advice is to print a few pictures from big trips and family events, because technology can be unreliable. Preserve those memories!

SERGEANT AT ARMS: Danny Raymond hit his "quota". He self-imposed a fine for his own mispronunciation of Troncale (TRON-CALL-EE). He fined Oscar Trujillo in pesos, Tim Hightower for his phone ringing, Mike Seals for ignoring new member, Matt Barnes, and Andy for being S.O.L. Good stuff!
